

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Grace be unto you, love and peace be unto you from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We have come to period in the history of the Seventh day Adventist church where we ought to be more resolute in our faith and commitment to the cause of God. These times calls for us to be steadfast and immovable and abounding in the love and joy of God. We must never forget that there is but one steadfast and unmovable reference point for life and that is the Word of God. We must also remember that we are to be steadfast and unmovable in our commitment to obeying the Word of God. The Book of Job says in chapter 14 and verse 1 that, "Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble." Is there anyone here that will give me an "AMEN" on that? Job was in the middle of experiencing the greatest trials of any man who ever lived, except for Jesus. With all of the things that were happening to him, I believe that he had learned this lesson the hard way.

We see that Job never failed to believe in God. Oh yes, there were times when he would grow weary of life. Moreover, who would not under his circumstances? Job had lost everything. His home was wrecked, his children were dead, his servants were gone, and most of his wealth had been destroyed or stolen. Even his health had left him, and he felt as though he was left desolate.

I just wanted to encourage you in this message to remain steadfast and unmovable in your faith in God. No matter what comes, God is still in control. No matter how hopeless your circumstances may seem; God is still in control. No matter how much the devil throws against you, you can always count on the Light of the World as your beacon of hope. Paul says in 1 Corinthians 15:58, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

I believe that Job had that kind of faith in God and I believe that we must have that kind of faith also. We must be convinced that God will do what he says he will do. He will never leave us or forsake us, but he will stay by our side. When all the trials of life are over, we must believe that the rewards that await us are far greater than the trials we bore. Having true faith will help you make sense out the troubling and confusing world you live in. It will give you the confidence you need to move forward with your life despite trials and setbacks.

Growing in faith requires believing in God and maintaining a close relationship with Him. You can have this relationship with God through daily prayer, Bible study and applying what God says in the Scriptures in your personal life.

I do not know about you, but I have decided to stay! I did not just make that decision this morning; I made that decision a long time ago. However, this morning I am ready to recommit my life to God. Regardless of what may happen, I am going to stay! What about you? There is more work to be done. For some this morning, you need to step up and say yes to God. You need to trust him for your present and eternal future.

Yours in the blessed Hope F1 Pastor Livingstone Aaron.

PASTORAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Church Business meeting tonight April 15, 2017

Should we purchase or should we build? Let's discover together the Advantages and disadvantages of either options. Let us seek God in this matter and let us trust him for his Devine guidance.

Investing in the house of God why?

Text: Exodus 35:4-35

Principle 1 – The church focus is building people and not physical buildings.

Principle 2 – When the people are built, the people build the church building Exo 35:4-5 “And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying: ‘Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as an offering to the LORD: gold, silver, and bronze;”

Pledges from those who wanted to give to the building fund.

When Moses shared, the people responded positively.

A. The Giving was from a Willing Heart.

35:21-22 “Then everyone came whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and they brought the LORD’S offering for the work of the tabernacle of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments. (22) They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, and brought earrings and nose rings, rings and necklaces, all jewelry of gold, that is, every man who made an offering of gold to the LORD.

A) The hearts of the people were stirred

b) The spirits of the people were willing

The giving was a joyous occasion.

B. The Giving was Widespread in Participation

i) Everyone came.... – V21

ii) Both men and women - v22

iii) The rulers brought... – v27

iv) The children of Israel brought... - v29

It appears that all the people, men and women, rich and poor, brought gifts of all kinds. Their stirred hearts caused them to seek and search for ways to give, not excuses for why they could not give.

C. The Giving was Abundant (23-29)

The response of the people to Moses’ challenge is overwhelming. The people respond in three ways.

A) They gave finances - the people give of their resources for the construction of the temple (35:4-9. 20-29, 36:1-7),

b) They gave time - the skilled craftsman help to build the tabernacle (35:10, 35:30-39:43)

c) They followed instructions - the people obey the Lord’s prescriptions regarding the tabernacle (38:21-40:33).

Moses had to stop the people because too much was coming inside.

LET US PREPARE FOR DIVINE SERVICE

HEALTH NUGGETS:

Oxygen is our body's most important physical need. Although air is composed of 20% oxygen, each inhalation brings this life-sustaining gas into the lungs. Oxygen then diffuses into the bloodstream, where it's transported all over the body via your red blood cells. It is mostly used to facilitate reactions involving the body's main energy source: glucose. Without oxygen, this energy source would be useless. "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." Gen. 2:7.

Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us.

Savior, like a shepherd lead us, much we need Thy tender care;
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us, for our use Thy folds prepare.
Blessèd Jesus, blessèd Jesus! Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.
Blessèd Jesus, blessèd Jesus! Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.

We are Thine, Thou dost befriend us, be the guardian of our way;
Keep Thy flock, from sin defend us, seek us when we go astray.
Blessèd Jesus, blessèd Jesus! Hear, O hear us when we pray.
Blessèd Jesus, blessèd Jesus! Hear, O hear us when we pray.

Thou hast promised to receive us, poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us, grace to cleanse and power to free.
Blessèd Jesus, blessèd Jesus! We will early turn to Thee.
Blessèd Jesus, blessèd Jesus! We will early turn to Thee.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS

Stewardship moments

Why should we give to the cause of GOD?

When we talk about stewardship within the context of the Christian life, we mean God is the owner of all things. These resources would be anything and everything He has given us. This would be our salvation, the gospel message, our churches, our education, our time, our energy, our thought life, the words we speak, the house in which we live, the cars we drive, our children, our spouse, our finances, our job. Everything we have. It all belongs to Him, and He has entrusted it to us for a specific purpose.

"God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemers' cause on the earth."

So what area of your life needs rearranging? Where do your priorities need to be realigned with God's priorities? Is it in the area of your time? How much of your time are you spending pursuing the Kingdom of God and His righteousness? Is it in the area of your finances? Are you giving faithfully back to God? Are you giving proportionately to what He has given you? When you stand before Him someday, what will He say?

Welcome to Baptismal class begins today at 3:30 PM

Stroudsburg Seventh-day Adventist Baptismal class will commence on Sabbath afternoon April 15th at 3:30 PM. We are urging all parents with children who are not yet baptized to make sure that you study with them regularly and make you to bring them to baptismal class twice per month. All the children ten years old and older, and unbaptized adults are expected to attend regularly and study the baptismal manual 'In His Steps'.

Our baptismal class aims to teach in a group environment the basic doctrines of the Bible as understood by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Ellen White notes: "There are many who want to know what they must do to be saved. They want a plain and clear explanation of the steps requisite in conversion" (Evangelism, p. 188). She adds this advice: "Often it would be more profitable if the Sabbath meetings were of the nature of a Bible class study. Bible truth should be presented in such a simple, interesting manner that all can easily understand and grasp the principles of salvation" (Evangelism, p. 348).

WHO ARE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS?

WHAT SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS BELIEVE

We believe that Jesus Christ;

Is found throughout the entire Word of God. (John. 5:39; II Tim. 3:16, 17)

Is the divine Son of God and our personal Savior. (John. 1:1-3; Heb. 7:25)

Offers His righteousness to all who accept Him by faith. (Rom. 4:3-5)

Soon coming will be visible to all, and at that time He will raise the dead.
(I Thess. 4:16, 17; I Cor.15:52)

Is the source of a new birth experience. (John. 3:3-5)

Is the Creator of the world, and established the 7th day Sabbath for His people to remember His creative power. (Heb. 1:1, 2; Ex. 20:8-11)

Is our example that the Ten Commandment Law is a reflection of God's perfect character, and that it is our pattern for successful living. (John. 15:10, James. 2:8-12)

In the Old and New Testaments, outlined the free giving of tithes and offerings to support the work of the church. (Mal. 3:10; Matt. 23:23)

Through His baptism, gave an example of His death and resurrection, and new life through our baptism. (Mark. 1:9; Rom. 6:3-5)

Through the Holy Spirit, makes our body His temple. (I Cor. 3:16, 17)

Gives the gifts of the Spirit for the unity of the faith and the perfection of the saints.
(Eph. 4:8-11; I Cor. 12)

Expects modesty and deportment in His children. (I Tim 2:9, 10)

Is now our heavenly Priest, and gives His last message for all mankind that,
"the hour of God's judgment is come." (Rev. 14:6-12; Heb. 8:1-6)
